

Websites to build Resume for free

By Shumbul Arifa

1. Novorésumé

- Fast and easy to use
- ATS friendly
- Excellent templates for freshers

The screenshot shows the Novorésumé software interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'novoresume' and 'My Resume' on the left, and 'Layout', 'Fonts', 'Themes', 'Format', 'Download', and 'My Documents' on the right. Below the navigation is a toolbar with icons for bold, italic, underline, and other styling options. The main area features a resume template for 'Rosalie Ann Santos' with her photo, title 'Flight Attendant', and a brief description of her experience. Her contact information includes email (rosalie@novoresume.com), phone (7481 345678), LinkedIn (linkedin.com/in/rosalie-ann-santos), and Instagram (instagram.com/rosalie.ann). The 'WORK EXPERIENCE' section lists her roles at Spirit Airlines and American Airlines, detailing her responsibilities and achievements. The 'SKILLS AND COMPETENCIES' section includes Personalized Customer Service, Cabin Maintenance, Emergency Care & Procedures, Airbus A319 & 320 Operation, First-Aid Intervention, Long-Haul Flight, Stress Tolerance, and Skill. The 'TRAININGS AND CERTIFICATIONS' section lists various flight attendant trainings and certifications. The 'ACHIEVEMENTS' section notes her long-haul flight record and sales milestones. The 'INTERESTS & HOBBIES' section includes Video Games, Swimming, Mindfulness, and Typography. On the left sidebar, there are buttons for 'My Content' and 'Switch Templates'. On the right sidebar, there are color and font selection tools.

2. Overleaf

- Uses LaTeX
- Collaborative
- ATS friendly
- Personalize easily
- Wide varieties of templates

1 Introduction

Your introduction goes here! Some examples of commonly used commands and features are listed below, to help you get started. If you have a question, please use the Overleaf menu in the top left of the editor to see various project settings, and to view our help documentation.

2 Some examples to get started

2.1 How to add Comments

Comments can be added to your project by clicking on the Review menu in the toolbar above. To reply to a comment, simply click the reply button in the lower right corner of the comment, and you can close them when you're done.

2.2 How to include Figures

First you have to upload the image file from your computer using the upload link in the project menu. Then use the `\includegraphics` command to include it in your document. Use the `\figure` environment and the `\caption` command to add a number and a caption to your figure. See the code for Figure 1 in this section for an example.

2.3 How to add Tables

Use the `\table` and `\tabular` commands for basic tables — see Table 1, for example.

4. Rezi

- Uses AI
- Content-focused features
- Real time content analysis

The screenshot shows the Rezi resume builder interface. On the left, there's a vertical sidebar with icons for resume creation, contact information, experience, projects, education, certifications, coursework, involvement, skills, summary, and a finish-up button. The main area displays a resume for 'Charles Bloomberg' from Seoul, South Korea. The resume includes a professional summary, professional experience (CEO & Founder at Rezi, Web Developer at Kaplan, Marketing Analyst at Kaplan), and an AI keyword targeting section. The AI section highlights keywords like 'Founder', 'Strategic Objectives', 'Capital Strategy', 'Sales', 'Seed', and 'Vision' with green checkmarks. It also suggests other keywords like 'Financial Structure', 'Advisory Board', etc., with grey circles. At the bottom, there are buttons for 'UPDATE JOB DESCRIPTION' and 'SHARE YOUR RESUME'.

5. KickResume

- AI Resume Builder
- ATS-Ready Templates
- Easy to use on mobile too
- Convert resume to personal website
